Speaker Biographical Sketch

Julie J. Weatherly, Esq. is the owner of Resolutions in Special Education, Inc. with offices in Alabama and Florida. Julie is a member of the State Bars of Alabama and Georgia, and for over 30 years, she has provided legal representation and consultative services to school districts and other agencies in the area of educating students with disabilities.

In June of 1996, Julie appeared with Leslie Stahl on CBS news program "60 Minutes" to discuss the cost of meeting the legal requirements of the IDEA. She has been a member of the faculty for many national and state legal institutes and is a frequent speaker at special education law conferences.

Julie has developed a number of videotape training series on special education law and has been published nationally as a part of her trainings, workshops and seminars. She is the author of the legal update article for the National CASE quarterly newsletter and is a member of LRP's Special Education Attorneys Advisory Council. In 1998, Julie was honored by Georgia's Council for Exceptional Children as Georgia's Individual who had Contributed Most to Students with Disabilities and, in April 2012, Julie received the National CASE Award for Outstanding Service.

Julie will receive financial compensation from DSHA for her presentation.

The DSHA conference committee members have no financial or non-financial relationships to disclose.
